

TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY OF CRETE

School of Environmental Engineering, University Campus, 73100, Chania

Post-graduate Studies Programme: «Environmental Engineering»

PRE-CALL FOR APPLICATIONS (2018-2019)

MSc. ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING

In view of the forthcoming approval of our new MSc study programme in Environmental Engineering and in order to assist applicants with their application we announce the list of documents necessary for submitting an application:

1. Application stating the applicant's desired specialization area
2. List of attachments
3. Copies of acquired degrees/diplomas
4. Certificate of accreditation by Hellenic NARIC (for degrees from foreign institutions)
5. Official transcripts
6. Copies of English Language Certificates (and of any other foreign language, where applicable)
7. Extended Curriculum Vitae
8. Statement of purpose regarding the applicant's interest in the post-graduate study programme, previous experience and research interests (up to 1000 words)
9. At least two letters of recommendation sent directly to the School's Secretariat

Template files for documents 1, 2 and 9 are available on the School's website: enveng.tuc.gr

The applications should be submitted:

- via our on line application system . When using the online system, a digital photo of the applicant is also required
- by post or in person to the:

Secretariat of the School of Environmental Engineering
Technical University of Crete
University Campus, Kounoupidiana
73100 Chania, Crete, Greece

The deadline to be announced will be: 31st of July 2018.

As of this year, registration fees will apply for any post-graduate student who is not entitled for a waive of fees. The total amount will be 1500 Euro for the three semesters of study

For more information, visit: www.enveng.tuc.gr or call +3028210-37781, +302821037788

The Dean of the School of Environmental Engineering

Professor M. Lazaridis