PhD study program in “Environmental Engineering”

Courses: Information and Registration for PhD students for Academic Year 2021-22

In case that during a semester there are no courses purely offered to PhD students, a PhD Candidate (PhD) is able, with the consent of his/her supervisor, to enroll in courses relevant to the wider field of his/her Doctoral Thesis offered in the Postgraduate Program of our School titled "MSc in Environmental Engineering

In the Fall semester of this academic year (2021-22), the courses offered to PhD students are exclusively those offered in the Postgraduate Program "MSc in Environmental Engineering".
